

Flickr Publishing in Lightroom Classic CC

- Setup: Click on Flickr under Publish Services (below Collections).
 - The Lr Publishing Manger wizard appears. Select Flickr.
 - Type a name, such as “Yourname’s Flickr Pro”
 - Create an account and Authorize. (Free for 1000 photos & 1 TB, $50/yr. for unlimited Pro)
 - Set Quality to about 80-85, Size to 2048 Long Edge. Sharpen, Watermark (Edit).
 - Set Privacy to Public, and IMPORTANT: Safe and Photo. (Moderate and Restricted are not shown).
 - Save.
- By using an attribute, such as Picks, create a collection of about 25 or so photos.
- Select all in filter (Cmd+A).
- Click + by Collections, name and Include selected.
- Open new collection, select all, drag to Flickr Publish Services, Photostream.
- Click on Photostream.
- Click on Publish in the top right corner. (The New Photos to Publish will be in the top section of the grid. Modified photos follow.)
- When the progress bar finishes the publishing (don’t wait on Publishing Comments), minimize Lightroom, go to your browser’s Flickr page.
- To see your Photostream, you may need to refresh the site (↻, Cmd+R, View>Reload Page)
- With your new photos showing, click the pencil to edit.
- Click Organizr.
- Click the first photo on the filmstrip’s left then scroll to the last in the collection, Shift-click for all (red borders).
- Drag any highlighted photo up to the workspace.
- Click Add to (New) Album (use down arrow for Existing Albums).
- Click Arrange > Arrange by Date Taken (Travel-Oldest first). Yes.
- Drag your cover photo choice to the left column thumbnail.
- Type an album name and Description. Save.
- For your first Collection, click Create a new: Collection.
- With a collection, drag the new album to name of the collection, or place in line.
- You should have a URL to share, such as : <https://www.flickr.com/photos/yourname/>

